

GAME ON! QUARTZ TO BE GROOMED THIS WEEKEND

LaNina has been working her magic here in Golden BC and if everything goes right, we'll be all systems go for grooms in Quartz this weekend (Fri, Sat, Sun). It's a better than average fall and we're going to optimistically call it excellent early season conditions.

Is it time to bring your novice significant other? Probably not. There's still a lot of exposed creeks and features that are evident but it's almost hard to keep your brain focused on your protecting your a-arms because deep powder carves are possible. You could say things have filled in real noice. Snow depth at treeline is anywhere from 90-130 cms deep, depending where you probe and there's a bunch of snow in the forecast.
