

THAT'S IT THAT'S ALL

Snowmobile conditions continue to be awesome in Golden as recent snowfalls have reset the entire range this week with approximately 1 m of new snow. It's still a good time to come sledding, however, SledGolden grooming operations have wrapped for the season and there are no more scheduled grooms. There will be no one charging trail fees at any of kiosks from now on.

The TCH-1 is closed till Sunday morning and Quartz has been ploughed fully to the 1km mark. Gorman is still rideable from the lower parking lot and the Silent road is a bumpy muddy mess. All the new snow and warming conditions have made avalanche conditions spike.

Keep reading to hear more about sledding in Golden this week.
